Write-The-Word

The pages that follow are provided in dotted handwriting to encourage you to write out God's word and hide it in your heart. When you slow down and meditate on the Word as you write, you'll find yourself relaxing, pondering, and memorizing along your learning journey. The graphics in the margins allow you the freedom create art as you complete this simple workbook.

If you only have access to a pencil, repeatedly trace over words you want to highlight. If you have a pen, colored pencils or highlighters, use them to enhance your artistic expression.

Here are some ideas you might consider as you meditate on God's word:

Simply trace all the words pondering the teaching as you write:

Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ

Trace then darken parts of the verse you feel are the most important:

We are troubled on every side, yet not distressed;

Trace then darken parts that draw you closer to God:

and I will be their God,

Trace then darken commands that speak to your heart/mind:

Be you not unequally yoked together with unbelievers:

Trace then darken parts of you want to remember:

God, that comforts those that are cast down,

Trace then darken reminders of faith:

While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen:

Trace then bubble outline words you want to notice:

that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God

Trace then add doodle art:

we had the sentence of death

[illegible]

2 CORINTHIANS 1

1:1 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, to the church of God which is at Corinth, with all the saints which are in all Achaia:

2 Grace be to you and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort;

4 Who comforts us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble,

2 CORINTHIANS 1

by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God.

5 For as the sufferings of Christ abound in us, so our consolation also abounds by Christ.

6 And whether we be afflicted, it is for your consolation and salvation, which is effectual in the enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer: or whether we be comforted, it is for your consolation and salvation.

7 And our hope of you is steadfast, knowing, that as you are partakers of the sufferings, so shall you be also of the consolation.

8 For we would not, brethren, have you ignorant of our trouble which came to us in Asia, that we were pressed out of measure, above strength, insomuch that we despaired even of life:

9 But we had the sentence of death in ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God which raises the dead:

10 Who delivered us from so great a death, and does deliver: in whom we trust

2 CORINTHIANS 1

that he will yet deliver us;

11 You also helping together by prayer for us, that for the gift bestowed upon us by the means of many persons thanks may be given by many on our behalf.

12 For our rejoicing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity and godly sincerity, not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God, we have had our conversation in the world, and more abundantly to you-ward.

13 For we write none other things to you, that what you read or acknowledge; and I trust you shall acknowledge even to the end;

14 As also you have acknowledged us in part, that we are your rejoicing, even as you also are ours in the day of the Lord Jesus.

15 And in this confidence I was minded to come to you before, that you might have a second benefit;

16 And to pass by you into Macedonia, and to come again out of Macedonia to you, and of you to be brought
