Write-The-Word

The pages that follow are provided in dotted handwriting to encourage you to write out God's word and hide it in your heart. When you slow down and meditate on the Word as you write, you'll find yourself relaxing, pondering, and memorizing along your learning journey. The graphics in the margins allow you the freedom create art as you complete this simple workbook.

If you only have access to a pencil, repeatedly trace over words you want to highlight. If you have a pen, colored pencils or highlighters, use them to enhance your artistic expression.

Here are some ideas you might consider as you meditate on God's word:

Simply trace all the words pondering the teaching as you write:

The book of the generation of Trace then darken parts of the verse you feel are the most important:

I was in prison, and you came to me.

Trace then darken parts that draw you closer to God:

with God all things are possible.

Trace then darken commands that speak to your heart/mind:

Repent: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

Trace then darken parts of you want to remember:

You shall love your neighbor as yourself.

Trace then darken reminders of faith:

be of good comfort; your faith has made you whole.

Trace then bubble outline words you want to notice:

The harvest truly is plenteous, but the laborers are few;

Trace then add doodle art:

For [?]where[?] your ^{$}treasure^{♡♡} is, there! will your heart be also.

2:1 Now when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of Herod the king, behold, there came wise men from the east to Jerusalem,

2 Saying, Where is he that is born King of the Jews? for we have seen his star in the east, and are come to worship him.

3 When Herod the king had heard these things, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.

4 And when he had gathered all the chief priests and scribes of the people together, he demanded of them where

[illegible]

7:1 Judge not, that you be not judged.

2 For with what judgment
you judge, you shall be judged: and with what measure you mete, it shall be measured to you again.

3 And why behold you the mote that is in your brother's eye, but consider not the beam that is in your own eye?

4 Or how will you say to your brother, Let me pull out the mote out of your eye; and, behold, a beam
is in your own eye?

5 You hypocrite, first cast out in the markets, and calling to their fellows,

17 And saying, We have piped to you, and you have not danced; we have mourned to you, and you have not lamented.

18 For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, He has a devil.

19 *The Son of man came eating and drinking, and they say, Behold a man
gluttonous, and a winebibber, a friend of publicans and sinners. But wisdom is justified of her children.*

MATTHEW 11

20 Then began he to upbraid the cities wherein most of his mighty works were done, because they repented not:

21 Woe to you, Chorazin! woe to you, Bethsaida! for if the mighty works, which were done in you, had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes.

22 But I say to you, It shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the day of judgment, than for you.

23 And you, Capernaum, which are exalted to heaven,
