Write-The-Word

The pages that follow are provided in dotted handwriting to encourage you to write out God's word and hide it in your heart. When you slow down and meditate on the Word as you write, you'll find yourself relaxing, pondering, and memorizing along your learning journey. The graphics in the margins allow you the freedom create art as you complete this simple workbook.

If you only have access to a pencil, repeatedly trace over words you want to highlight. If you have a pen, colored pencils or highlighters, use them to enhance your artistic expression.

Here are some ideas you might consider as you meditate on God's word:

Simply trace all the words pondering the teaching as you write:

Paul and Timothy, the servants of Jesus Christ,

Trace then darken parts of the verse you feel are the most important:

I thank my God upon every remembrance of you,

Trace then darken parts that draw you closer to God:

he which has begun a good work in you will perform it

Trace then darken commands that speak to your heart/mind:

Only let your conversation be as it becomes the gospel of Christ:

Trace then darken parts of you want to remember:

*not only to believe on him,
but also to suffer for his sake;*

Trace then bubble outline words you want to notice:

Grace be to you, and peace,

Trace then add doodle art:

*because I have you
in my heart;*

PHILIPPIANS 1

1:1 Paul and Timothy, the servants of Jesus Christ, to all the saints in Christ Jesus which are at Philippi, with the bishops and deacons:

2 Grace be to you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 I thank my God upon every remembrance of you,

4 Always in every prayer of mine for you all making request with joy,

5 For your fellowship in the gospel from the first day until now;

6 Being confident of this very thing, that he which has begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ:

7 Even as it is meet for me to think this of you all, because I have you in my heart; inasmuch as both in my bonds, and in the defense and confirmation of the gospel, you all are partakers of my grace.

8 For God is my record, how greatly I long after you all in the bowels of Jesus Christ.

9 And this I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in all judgment;

10 That you may approve things that are excellent; that you may be sincere and without offence till the day of Christ.

11 Being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God.

12 But I would you should understand, brethren, that the things which happened to me have fallen out rather to the furtherance of the gospel;

13 So that my bonds in Christ are manifest in all the palace, and in all other places;

14 And many of the brethren in the Lord, waxing confident by my bonds, are much more bold to speak the word without fear.

15 Some indeed preach Christ even of envy and strife; and some also of good will:

16 The one preach Christ of contention, not sincerely, supposing to add affliction to my bonds:

17 But the other of love, knowing that I am set for the defense of the gospel.

18 What then?
